

AMVETS

PRAYER MANUAL

National Constitution

Preamble

We, the American Veterans who have served or are serving in the Armed Forces of the United States during and since World War II, fully realizing our responsibility to our community, to our state and to our nation, associate ourselves for the following purposes: to uphold and defend the Constitution of the United States; to safeguard the principles of freedom, liberty and justice for all; to promote the cause of peace and goodwill among nations; to maintain inviolate the freedom of our country; to preserve the fundamentals of democracy; to perpetuate the friendship and associations of these veterans; and to dedicate ourselves to the cause of mutual assistance, this by the grace of God.

Important Role of the Post Chaplain

The Post Chaplain has been aptly designated as the VIP (Very Important Person) of the AMVETS.

The Chaplain need not be a clergyman but he/she must be a person capable of moral and intellectual leadership and one who gives dignity and respect to the office. He/she should be in close touch with the Commander and other officers of the Post and should attend all meetings of the Post and Executive Committee. The leadership in many of the Post's activities belongs of right to the Chaplain and when this office is filled by the right person the usefulness of the Post to the Community will be greatly increased.

If the Chaplain is a clergyman he/she can invite the Post to attend his/her church as a body on Memorial Sunday and Armistice Sunday (Veteran's Sunday). The sermon should be patriotic, holding up high ideals of American citizenship. If not a clergyman, he/she can arrange for these services alternately with churches of the community.

He/she should cooperate with the Post Historian in his/her graves registration work and inspire the Post to its full duty in seeing that all graves of servicemen are appropriately decorated on Memorial Day. In case the Post Historian is negligent in his/her duty, the Post Chaplain should not hesitate to bring the matter before the Post.

Besides officiating at funerals of deceased members the Chaplain can be of great service in case of deaths in families of members.

The sick should be visited. If there are hospitals nearby, arrangements should be made for frequent visits to ALL service patients.

Families of servicemen who are in distress can be helped and if there are orphaned or destitute children the Chaplain can line himself/herself up with part of the great work the AMVETS is undertaking by seeking that these little ones are cared for.

If there is an asylum for the mentally ill, he/she can visit these comrades and learn if they are properly cared for.

Some of our "buddies" are in jails and prisons. Never mind - they are "buddies" still. He/she can visit them and help them work out their moral reformations. Experience shows that Chaplains in such cases have done much to rehabilitate character.

The Post Chaplain should present the condolences of the Post either in writing or personally to the families of those who met death in war.

It is suggested that you work closely with your Post Publicity Officer, meet and know your newspaper editors and writers and your radio and television station managers and broadcasters so that Post worthy activities may receive fullest credit.

(The AMVETS official prayer) Almighty God, the Father and Guide of our great nation, we beseech Thee to give us the light and strength faithfully to uphold and defend our constitution, to safeguard our principles of liberty and justice, to promote the cause of peace throughout the world, and to strengthen the bonds of friendship and mutual assistance among our fellow citizens. Amen.

Prayer for Our Prisoners of War

Lord, shelter the prisoners of war in _____. Open the hearts and minds of their captors that they may be restored to their homes and loved ones. Each has carried the burden of battle. Each has discharged on obligation of his country. Each has been subjected to hazards, pain, and imprisonment beyond the lot of the soldier. O Lord, these gallant men who bear so great a burden must not be forsaken. God of Justice to whom we pray, thy compassion we beseech. Lift their burden, give them strength and strike the shackles that deny them freedom. Amen.

Prayers for Youth

We invoke thy blessing O God on the children of America. Give joy to their hearts, understanding to their minds, courage and resoluteness to their wills, that they may be guided throughout life's journey, be strong in the fight against evil, and pursue that which is right and just. May their faith in thee never waver and may it make them ever true to themselves, to others, to their heritage as Americans, and true to thee O God. Amen.

Prayer for more solemn occasions

Give Thy blessing to our world, to our nation, to our loved ones, and to our lives, that all may dwell in charity, in justice, and in peace under Thy loving care. Grant that we may serve our country well, in peace as in war; and that she may ever prevail as good and great, right and victorious among the family of nations on this earth. We beseech Thy special blessing on ourselves, banded together for good in this organization, and on all who have served our nation by suffering and sacrifice in time of national emergency, particularly those who today suffer from mental and physical disability. Most humbly do we ask these graces of Thy bounty. Amen

Arriving at the grave, the post halts and opens order.

- The firing party forms in a single rank about 10 yards behind the foot of the grave and about 5 yards to left of the grave.
- The body bearer's form in two files, facing the road and ready to receive the casket. The bugler stands a few paces behind the head of the grave. All personnel stand at ease.
- When the hearse comes into view, the commander calls the burial detail to attention.
- When the hearse is parked, the body bearers step forward and take the casket from the hearse.
- As soon as they have lifted the casket, the commander brings the firing party and bugler to the position of "present arms."
- The body is brought to the bier.
- The post colors are dipped. (Never dip the U.S. flag.)
- The post forms around the gravesite and the chaplain pays tribute to the deceased.
- The commander brings the bugler and firing party to the order. With inclined heads, the bugler and firing party assume the position of parade rest.
- The body bearers lift the flag from the casket and hold it over the grave at waist height, holding it taut so that it will not sag.
- The chaplain invokes the Divine Blessing.
- When he finishes, he steps to one side and the bugler takes his position at the head of the grave.
- When the bugler is in position, the commander brings the firing party to attention and the bugler comes to the position of "present arms" at the same command.
- The commander orders, "Firing party, ready, aim, fire."
- The post colors are dipped over the grave.
- The firing party fires three volleys and remains in the position of load. When the last volley is fired, the bugler comes to attention and Taps is played.
- During the playing of Taps, the officer in charge of the firing party gives the order PRESENT ARMS and executes the hand salute. At the conclusion of Taps, the commander brings the firing party to Order Arms.

- As soon as he has completed playing Taps, the bugler steps back a pace, salutes, about-faces and join the firing party.
- The body bearers fold the flag, hand it to the superintendent of the cemetery or the commander, face the foot of the grave and march off to the rear of the firing party.
- The firing party, body bearers and post members move off at quick time at the commander's order.

Chaplain's Tribute: At the grave or at the home, the chaplain can recite the following:

“As chaplain of Post (number), Department of (state), of the American veterans who have served or are serving in the Armed Forces of the United States during and since World War II, I bring to the next of kin, to the family and friends of our departed comrade, assurance of our heartfelt sympathy in their hour of sorrow, and assurance of our sincere appreciation of the service this departed veteran has rendered to our country and to us.”

“Every veteran stood one day in solemn pledging of himself to service of his God, his country, and his fellow men, in time of war, in time of peace. That pledge was to last as long as life, for the good of all. Our departed comrade one day left home and loved ones to go out across the world, over land and sea as ordered, to fulfill that sacred oath. He (she) offered himself (herself) on the altar of patriotism for the nation he (she) loved. Only those who have suffered the wounds of war, physical and mental, can know the cost of sacrifice that is often necessary in fulfilling such an oath.”

“In the time of national emergency, America has never lacked the brave, devoted sons and daughters to go out and do battle for her sacred cause. America cannot, and will not, forget those brave veterans who in time of war saved her and in time of peace have preserved for all her way of life.”

“I speak for America and for every American today, when I say America would not be the America we know and love, were it not for the patriotic sacrifice of men and women like our departed comrade. It is a glorious thing to die for America. It is also a glorious thing to live for America. Our departed comrade speaks to us today and bids us to live for America as God-fearing, honorable citizens, ready to be of service at all times to our country and to our fellowman. “

“I speak for every AMVET, for every veteran, and for the United States Government, when I say that the patriotic service of this man (woman) will never be forgotten, and that we stand ready to be of help, in every possible way, to the family and dependents of this or of any other of our fallen comrades.”

“One day each of us must go the way of all mortals, into the eternity of God. May that God deal kindly with His veterans, and may our ranks of comradeship once again form on the eternal shores of heaven and go marching on into the kingdom of God’s blessed and everlasting peace.”

Divine Blessing: The chaplain may write his own prayer or invoke the following Divine Blessing:

“Blessed Lord God, we invoke Your presence with and blessing on us as we commit to Your grace and Love AMVET (name). We thank you, Lord, for the life of AMVET (name). We pray AMVET (name) will live with You in life everlasting. Amen.”

or:

“Lord God Almighty, maker of all that exists, we invoke Your blessing and peace on us as we entrust to You the soul of AMVET (name). Lord, Your grace be on us now and always. Amen.”

Memorial Prayer: The chaplain may say his own prayer or the following:

“Loving God, eternal in heaven, our hearts are lifted to You in prayer. We do so, Lord, in thanksgiving for the life of AMVET (name). We thank You, Lord, for the love of AMVET (name) for You, for our country, and for family and friends; a love that has enriched all of our lives. We are most grateful that by the service of AMVET (name) in the armed forces of the United States of America, we are truly a free people in a free land. Your holy and infinite blessings be with the family and loved ones of AMVET (name) in all of time. Lord, receive AMVET (name) as Your own. Bless AMVET (name) with life everlasting. Amen”.

Benediction: The chaplain may give his own benediction or the following: “The peace and blessing of the Lord be with us always. Amen.”

or:

“The love of God, which brings to comfort and peace from our Lord, be with us always. Amen.”

Chaplain: Lord we entrust our (brother/sister) to your mercy. You loved (him/her) greatly in this life, now (he/she) is freed from all its cares, give (him/her) happiness and peace forever. May (his/her) soul and all the souls of the faithful departed rest in peace. Amen.

All AMVETS present at the funeral service shall pass the casket and salute the deceased veteran.

Procedure at the cemetery

Chaplain: For as much as God hath taken out of the world the soul of our departed comrade we therefore commit (him/her) back to the ground to sleep and (his/her) soul to endless peace to rest. The dust returneth to earth as it was and the spirit returneth unto God who gave it.

Two pallbearers remove the Flag from the casket, fold it in the traditional manner, and hand it to the Chaplain who will give the Flag to the nearest of kin.

Commander: (as the flag is being folded) This banner of love and devotion now being folded, is a living memorial of the courageous thoughts of our comrade, the one you came to honor today. The blue field represents the sky that overlooks our land and denotes the watchfulness of God. The red stripes tell us of the blood, sweat, and tears that have been offered and conquered by our comrade's devotion to the responsible freedom of his country. The white stripes boldly proclaim the peace that he helped to bring to our future generations. This is HIS flag; this is our Spiritual Heritage. Receive it with the tears of our minds and the faith of our hearts. Amen.
