

DRAFT CBL AMENDMENT CBL-14

SUBJECT: Removal of National Third Vice Commander position in National CBL

SOURCE: AMVETS Department of Virginia

WHEREAS, the National Third Vice Commander is responsible for the legislative activities of the organization and shall coordinate all department legislative leadership or Vice Commanders in charge of legislative undertakings; and

WHEREAS, the National Third Vice Commander, working in concert with the National Legislative Director, shall also-

- (1) Coordinate all legislative activities between national headquarters and all departments;
- (2) Endeavor to create and present new legislative participation incentives to the National Commander and/or the National Executive Committee;
- (3) Be informed as to all legislative activities instituted by National HQ;
- (4) Perform such other duties in connection with AMVETS legislative activities as the National Commander shall direct; and

WHEREAS, each Department has a responsibility to inform the National Legislative Director of all legislative activities within the Department/National level concerning veteran issues; and

WHEREAS, the National Legislative Director is responsible to coordinate the future National Headquarters legislative agenda and present all changes to the National CBL at NEC/National Conventions; and

WHEREAS, the National Third Vice Commander position does not provide any additional legislative participation incentives to National HQ and the Departments as performed by the National Legislative Director; now therefore be it

RESOLVED, that AMVETS National Constitution Article VI, Section 1. (a) amended to remove the position of National Third Vice Commander. As such, AMVETS National Bylaws Article III, Section 2. (c) shall be removed.
