

TECHNICAL SERGEANT TIFFANY V. CHAMBERS

Technical Sergeant Chambers is an Aerospace Medical Services Craftsman assigned to Malcolm Grow Medical Clinics and Surgery Center as the Flight Chief of the Anesthesia Flight, Joint Base Andrews, Maryland. She was born in Warner Robbins, Georgia on July 6, 1982. She attended Frederick Douglass High School and graduated at the top of her class. Due to her academic standing she was recommended for a Work Study program which allowed her to graduate ahead of her peers. She served as a school peer-mediator, academic tutor and was also member of the Stock Market Club. Upon graduation, she was offered several college scholarships but decided to follow in her father's footsteps and joined the US Air Force on September 13, 2000. After successfully completing basic training and Phase I/II clinical training, she was assigned to the Malcolm Grow Medical Center, Intensive Care Unit, JB Andrews, MD. There she was awarded a Specialty Experience Identifier (SEI) as a Critical Care Technician. This offered her the opportunity to expand her growth within the medical field and optimize her scope of practice. Although she has been homestead in the National Capital Region since 2001, she has seized every opportunity to grow as an Airman, Medic, and Leader. Some of her assignments include: Medical/Surgical Intensive Care/Step Down ICU; Andrews AFB, MD. (2001-2005), Internal Medicine Clinic, assistant NCOIC; Andrews AFB, MD (2005-2007), Emergency Dept, EMT, Andrews AFB, MD (2007-2011), AF Element/Critical Care, Flight Chief and Education & Training NCOIC; Walter Reed National Military Medical Center, Bethesda, MD (2011- 2017), Same Day Surgery, Anesthesia Flight Chief, JB Andrews, MD (2017- currently). Sergeant Chambers is actively involved in the Medical Group and serves in a variety of positions, including Additional Duty First Sergeant, Critical Care Program Advisor, EMT Coordinator and JB Andrews Mentorship Chairperson. On her off duty time, she supports many charities and organizations including Ruth's House, So Others May Eat, and the Angel Tree Project. Her awards and decorations include: Army Commendation Medal, AF Outstanding Unit Award (Fifth Oak Leaf Cluster), AF Good Conduct Medal (Third Oak Leaf Cluster), National Defense Service Medal, Global War on Terrorism Service Medal, AF Longevity Service (Second Oak Leaf Cluster), USAF Noncommissioned Officer Professional Military Education Graduate Ribbon (First Oak Leaf Cluster) and AF Training Ribbon. Some additional accomplishments include, Non Commissioned Officer of the year (2018), Sijan Award Recipient

(2018), and America's Airman (2019). She currently attends the University of Maryland and is working toward her Sociology Degree.
