WITH PRIDE

Greetings to members of the AMVETS Department of [INSERT STATE],

As the AMVETS Department of [INSERT STATE] gathers for the annual state convention, I want to extend my best wishes to each of you on behalf of AMVETS National Headquarters. Thanks to your hard work and dedication, AMVETS remains one of the nation's top veterans' service organizations, serving veterans of all conflicts and continuing to adapt to the ever-changing needs of our nation's heroes.

Over the last seven decades, AMVETS has built its Stellar reputation upon the tireless efforts of our members and posts and departments all across the country, and AMVETS Department of [INSERT STATE] is no exception. In the last year, each of you has demonstrated your commitment to those who have served through a broad range of innovative programs and volunteer efforts.

As National Commander, I want to take this opportunity to thank your department and your members for your continued devotion to the noble cause of veterans' service, and I challenge you to do all that you can to serve our veterans, past and present, during these challenging times in our nation.

As [INSERT STATE] AMVETS, you continue to improve the lives of your fellow veterans, and serve as stewards of the communities in which you live, keeping with the greatest traditions of our organization and our nation. With this in mind, I wish you a most productive and successful convention in 2022.

Yours in service to American Veterans,

Gregory S. Heun, National Commander, AMVETS
